City Gets Okay For High Level

CPR Gives Nod For Extension On Top Deck

Final approval to go ahead with alterations to the High Level bridge was obtained yesterday by city commissioners from Canadian Pacific Railway officials.

They released the city to proceed with its money bid for $1,000,000 for the project, Mayor Harry D. Ryckman said today.

A formal agreement will now be drawn up by legal departments of the city and CPR.

All costs involved in widening the top deck to accommodate two 24-foot traffic lanes outside the railroad tracks will be borne by the city.

Original agreement under which the bridge was built provided for sharing of maintenance costs on a basis of investment shares. With completion of the new bridge, the city will have to assume a larger share of maintenance costs, most of which involve periodic painting.

In the meantime, however, the original agreement will remain in effect.

Representing the CPR at yesterday's meeting were C. Jones, general superintendent for Alberta district, J. R. Strohman, divisional engineer, and W. A. Smith, divisional engineer.

More "Trouble" than a baby. Is David Rubnoff's $100,000 genuine Stradivarius violin. It was once owned by the Romanoff monarchs of Russia and bears Romanoff coat of arms. Naturally, Rubnoff spends a lot of time polishing up such a marvelous instrument.

Anybody Got Any Old Barber Bottles?
By Jack DeLong
Edmonton Staff Reporter

Wanted: Old fashioned barber's bottles of Gay Nineties period and previous. Good cash prices paid. Bring bottles to David Rubnoff, violinist, Macdonald Hotel, Edmonton.

The foregoing is a free ad masquerading under the guise of news, inserted by world-famed violinist and composer Rubnoff, musician of the masses.

In Edmonton for two concerts at the Seize Pavilion today, Rubnoff said he was telling of his passion for barber bottle antiques "for the first time in a press interview."

"I'm crazy over two things," said the world-famous violinist. "Barber's bottles and cameras. I take four pictures but I love taking them."

He said he has collected more than 125 bottles of various designs and color in the past 15 years. He places them in a big show window where they are set off by lights.

Full of Fun
Rubnoff gives two concert performances today, the first for teachers and school children at 2:30 p.m. with a concert for the general public starting at 8:30 in the evening.

Short, stocky and full of fun, Rubnoff is proud of saying: "I'm no musical humorist."

"Unless the people—ordinary people—understand and appreciate what an artist plays, what good is he doing?" asked the man who became a doctor of music at the age of 34.

"Take a lecture for example," he said.

"It takes all afternoon to play one and when you are finished what has happened? Most people don't understand what you have accomplished."

Rubnoff's famed violin is never out of his sight for one moment. A Stradivarius made in 1731, the instrument is insured for $100,000.

"It is far harder to look after than a baby," Rubnoff grinned.

Hands of the famed musician are also insured for $100,000 with Lloyds of London.

Mrs. Rubnoff is accompanying her distinguished husband on his first tour of western Canada. They have one child, David, five, living in Wichita, Kansas. The younger Rubnoff is following right in his father's footsteps and is a child prodigy in music.

Rubnoff plans a plain, down-to-earth concert for Edmontonians tonight but it is one he feels certain Edmontonians will enjoy to the limit.

Entered former selected at a legislative building meeting yesterday attended by about 20 members of the Alberta Livestock Board, exhibitors and members of Alberta department of agriculture staff.

Cost of shipping the livestock to the fair, opening at Toronto Nov. 15, will be paid by Alberta department of agriculture. A similar arrangement is being made to handle grain exhibits going to the Canada-wide show.

Guerillas Raid Behind Lines Held By 40,000 Trained Troops

By Joseph L. Jones
United Press Staff Correspondent

2. is a national holiday, which may be why nobody is working in that pleasant no-man's-land. "Soldiers of South Korea," the distant voice is shouting, "why do you show the Americans your trenches? Why do you serve that traitor, Syngman Rhee (president of Southern Korea)? Your commanding officer has run back to Seoul."

"Why do you consort with the Americans? You ought to work for the common people. Come over and join us."

FIRING ENDS HARANGUE

The speaker was polite, if testaceous. He addressed the Southern Kuers troops as "gentlemen." He did not even call us vulgar "imperialist American bastards" as does the official broadcasting station at Poyungang, the northern capital.

The little non-committed-of-ear at my side listened and frowned away. "They read that from script," he said.

A minute later, one of the men nearest us raised his rifle and banged away at the northern emplacement on the skyline. Every body was startled, and there was a spatter of fire from both sides before the Indian summer quail returned.

GUERRILLAS ACTIVE

There are two kinds of fighting going on in Korea—sporadic attacks along the 38th parallel and the far more serious stable guerrilla warfare inside the peninsula. The number of guerrillas inside South Korea itself.

There may be 20,000 troops facing each other across the parallel, which by declaration of the great powers cuts Korea in two for 10 years from the Yellow Sea to the Gulf of Thailand to the Sea of Japan.

But there are upward of 25,000 guerrillas within the Korean republic itself. They are not all active at the same time. They are hiding like the one at Pusan, killing police, burning houses, and shooting up towns. These police raid Communist centers and the hills. The dead, according to official estimates, have numbered about 300 for the last three

The present job of the regular Communist troops is to keep the Republican army busy in the north while the guerrillas upset the country internally. Unquestionably, it is having some effect. There is an 11 p.m. curfew in Seoul, the capital, and the most usual estimates of political prisoners, including guerrillas and accused subversives, are around 24,000.

at the national tournament in Chicago. Mrs. Flasher was the dealer (North) and her partner was East. I was sitting in the third seat, and I was confirming a thought I have often expressed, Mrs. Flasher pointed out to me that I was in for my first trick. The card she played would be to win the first trick with the ace of trumps. I thought, "You stop to think and count your tricks, you can see that if I declare plays the ace of trumps, I will lose, and I will lose, she still can make four diamond tricks. The ace of trumps is the only trump she has, and she has nine and the ace of spades to lead. Now all she has to do is to make a contract of four diamonds." I thought, "When the ten of diamonds holds the first trick, declare and play the ace of trumps. I will win with the ace, trump the dealer's ace of spades in dummy with the ace of spades, and then I will have hearts, pick up the trumps, take the diamond finesse, and discard the heart loser. I have a good chance."

I declared with the first trick, and I made four diamonds. Everything on the hand is lost. Even though a second diamond finesse was taken, the contract will not be made.

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Currency devaluation should bring long-run price reductions in Canada, says Minister St. Laurent last night.

The Prime Minister, addressing the annual dinner of the Canadian Congress of Labor, at the same time warned that he would be bluntly not to push wages so high that Canadian goods would be priced out of world markets. He said that the government would press delegates that labor should not demand wage increases that would put Canadian goods at a disadvantage in the world market.

On the world outlook, Mr. St. Laurent told some 800 congress delegates here for their annual convention that the government believes the Atlantic Pact can provide peace, and that there is "no much cause of armed aggression" against the united strength of the democracies.

Live Bullets Are Aimed In Mock War Scheme

WAINWRIGHT, Alta., Oct. 5.—(CP)—With live ammunition and a river crossing under cover of darkness providing the realistic touch, more than 1,000 personnel of the Canadian army's active force units advanced towards the northern Alberta centre today in the biggest mock war manoeuvre ever seen in this army training area.

Scorching the attack on a mythical enemy are Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, Canada's first airborne unit, and more than a score of 360-ton Sherman tanks operated by men of Lord Strathcona's Horse (RCA).

Both regiments are based at Calgary. The manoeuvre, dubbed "Operation Big Horn," got under way yesterday at Lake Geneva, 19 miles north, where reconnaissance troops of the PPCLI made contact with an "enemy" force commanded by Capt. Bill Stitt of the Royal Edmonton Regiment.

Capt. Stitt also led "enemy" units in the recent exercise Eagle. Attacking Canadian forces under Brig. M. P. Rogers of Vancouver, commander of the B. C. area of Western Army Command, pulled up to the Battle River near here last night. Forward elements of the PPCLI waded across the stream at midnight to establish a bridgehead on the other side.

The 2nd Field Squadron, (RCE), from Chilliwack, B. C., then moved in to construct bridges across the river and clear mines in the bridgehead area.

With the crossing of the river, the mythical enemy and blaring machine guns disappeared. From now until Saturday, when Big Horn ends, tanks and troops will fire live rounds. Scores of armored vehicles and three light aircraft for artillery spotting are being used in the attack which is moving towards Wainwright military camp, the dominant highest army training area. Wainwright is about 100 miles southeast of Edmonton.

Other units taking part in the exercise, commanded by Maj.-Gen. M. H. S. Penhale, GOC of Western Command, are in the 1st Field Regiment, (RCA), from Camp Shilo, Man., and an active force signals troop from Kingston, Ont.

The Gulf of Mexico has yielded a sponge as large as a tub, containing 12,128 shrimp, barnacles, worms, and a species of crab.

DISTRICT GOVERNOR OF Western Canadian Clubs, Edgar W. Byrne of Kilmory, Ont., will arrive in Edmonton Thursday. He will be guest of local club and conduct special business session.

National Code Is Labor Plea

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—A national labor code covering all workers was demanded yesterday by the Canadian Congress of Labor.

A resolution adopted at the CCL's annual convention declared the present set-up of provincial codes "conflicts in many ways with the right of workers to organize."

It added the system has too many technicalities that are "translated in favor of unscrupulous employers."

The federal code now covers only certain industries such as railways, communications and shipping.

Five-Day, Forty-Hour Week Sought by CCL

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—The Canadian Congress of Labor today called for a five-day, 40-hour week without reduction of take-home pay.

The demand came in a resolution adopted at the CCL's annual convention.

Stewart Ashbury of Fraser Mills, B.C., member of the International Woodworkers of America, declared all factions in the Congress, regardless of politics, should unite for a shorter week.

Both he and Paul Henderson, of the University of Saskatchewan, said the work week should be less than now.

Another resolution adopted asked for an immediate start on a federal public works program to absorb what was termed "considerable numbers" of unemployed now in the country. The work should be done at union wage scales.

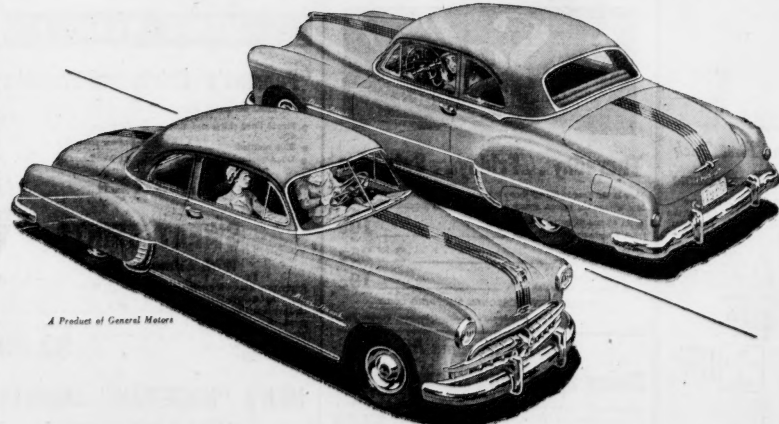

PLANS INADEQUATE
The resolution declared that projected anti-depression plans of the government call for employment of only 30,000 workers and this was inadequate to tackle any large-scale employment problem.

The convention asked the domain to outline a program "consistent with the needs of the nation" that would include such projects as national highways, irrigation systems and community centres.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—In these days of pressure groups and abused minorities, Dan Dailey needs a fair deal for the outsize male.

Without the aid of uplifting shoes or any other form of subterfuge, Dailey ranks as Hollywood's highest. He rises to a chandelier-brushing height of six feet, four inches.

Now this may sound ideal to males constructed on a smaller scale. But the actor claims it has disadvantages, due to man's inhumanity to tall men.

"I'm in favor of all tall men in the country organizing to combat against them," he said, and he said "Standard sizes just aren't big enough for us."

Regularly, once a week, I hit my head on the top of my car, he complained. "When I get out of the car, my legs are stiff from being folded up I can't walk straight."

SPECIAL PROBLEMS

"But it isn't just automobiles that are too small. Finding clothes that fit is a long, arduous task. Sometimes it's easier to have them made. Of course, that means more expense."

Towering height brings special problems for an actor. Most leading ladies are so much shorter that it takes camera trickery to avoid making it look like a father-daughter team. Sometimes they have to dig a trench for the actor. Sometimes the actor almost has to kneel.

"Yes," mused Dailey with a political glint in his eye. "I think I will get Jimmy Stewart, Gregory Peck and Henry Connelley together and organize a committee to see that all men get their rights."

CCL Sets Sights On Living Costs

Housing Situation Termed Great National Scandal

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Housing conditions and the cost of living came under heavy fire yesterday at the Canadian Congress of Labor convention, which adopted a series of proposals aimed at bringing down living costs.

A demand for a national low-cost housing program came before the convention and but this resolution was temporarily shelved for amendment. It will be adopted later.

PRICE CONTROLS

To reduce living costs, the 800-man convention called for re-imposition of price controls, restoration of rental control at their wartime effectiveness and payment of federal subsidies on milk, bread and other staples.

Another major demand of the convention on its second day was a call for the creation of a national labor code that would take in all workers.

The present federal labor code covers only certain inter-provincial industries, with the provinces having jurisdiction over the remainder of labor within their borders.

Speakers today were sharply critical of this system. The housing situation was called a "disgrace" and a "great national scandal."

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

In other directions, the Congress adopted resolutions on various topics including requests for:

1. A Dominion-Provincial committee to consider aid for municipalities in constructing and operating hospitals, schools and other public institutions, and in expanding and establishing industries.

2. Greater co-operation between labor and major farm groups for the attainment of common objectives.

3. Equal pay for men and women.

4. A ban on the use of legal injunctions against labor.

5. Revision of the federal cost-of-living index to reflect living costs more accurately.

RADIO LICENSES

6. No increase in radio license fees, the federal treasury to pay for any improvements needed in the CBC service.

Union Harmony Urged By Tobin For CIO-AFL

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 4.—(AP)—Labor Secretary Maurice J. Tobin today called on organized labor in the United States to replace discord and cross-purposes with the "solidarity of co-operation" to secure such objectives as repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act.

"It has already been proved that when an international crisis is being faced, or when the labor movement is being threatened within a country as in Washington, AFL and CIO can work together effectively and harmoniously," Tobin told the AFL convention.

7. Provision of a Canadian market for western coal.

8. Use of proportional representation system of voting in all federal and provincial elections.

Highlight of today's session was appearance of British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, an old trade union man, who addressed the delegates briefly in a pause in a busy round of official engagements during his Ottawa visit.

Church Policy
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—(AP)—A broad statement of church policy, advocating social justice as the answer to Russian totalitarianism, was announced today by the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church, in triennial convention here.

Fruit Retailers Get Sales Idea
TORONTO, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Retailers might be wise to pass savings on fruit and vegetables to customers, even though, at times, it might mean a temporary loss. David McNair of Kesteven, B.C., told the Retail Merchants' Association luncheon here yesterday.

Continued research on refrigeration, handling and packing will result in better fruits and vegetables to Canadian housewives, he said, but fair prices of these products would keep them moving.

Public Opinion Poll Picks New York Yankees STAN MOHER AT SERIES

Yanks Called to Win in Seven But Wise Money Says 'Sawoff'

By STAN MOHER
Bulletin Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Heard at New Series press headquarters, Baltimore Hotel:
Wise-money guys don't want any part of making either Yankees or Dodgers series favorites. They give the Brooklyn edge on paper but believe Yankees' great fighting spirit against this and call it a sawoff.

However there is some action, with Yanks 7-4 favorites in the opener, providing Alie Reynolds gets the pitching assignment for the New Yorkers and Bur: Shotton, Dodgers' ancient manager, shoots with Preacher Roe.

Phil Rizzuto calls Yanks to win, but isn't looking for any part of an easy bet. "Should do it in seven," says the main general rated Casey Stengel's best overall manager during the tense pennant chase.

This'll give you an idea that even the Yanks have plenty of respect for their opponents from across the East River. Dodgers never have won a World Series. This will be their fifth try at earning the big share.

Tickets (what tickets?) will bring $100 on the black market, if that's the correct terminology. Seems even the scalpers were caught short when it came to anticipating the interest the series was bound to stir. Now they're bemoaning the dollars they gave away at eight and ten dollars the copy.

If Civil Guard (Heads) Dodger outfielder, fails to shake off a groin injury in time to get into the opener, Shotton will lose the sparkplug of Brooklyn's stirring last month deal that finally put Cardinals open for the count.

Purillan, an ace defensively at all times, likewise passed dodgers at the plate in those closing weeks. They say he throws strikes from anywhere in the ball park—he is Yankee Stadium or Ebbetts Field.

Among members of the 1916 pennant winning Dodgers on hand for the series are special guests of Branch Rickey, is Wheeler Dell. If he have the oldie pegged right, he once pitched in the Western Canada league.

"Let 'em run, maybe they'll find that ball somewhere around second base when they get there," is the only gimmick. Louder as Lombarido is concerned, is that he'll have to pay the help out of his own money belt. "I consider it a great honor," says Lombarido, which shows how the hysteria generated by the current series, too, only worsens.

Story goes that every aircraft that put down at nearby LaGuardia Field for the past 48 hours disappeared a load of baseball fans. Unfortunately most of them were without the very necessary tickets and a mad scramble has ensued.

Yankee Stadium won't hold more than 72,000, even if they use a showpiece tent in the customers. This isn't a very big house, considering the demand for tickets on the part of greater New York alone.

One guest who shapes up as a certain loser, even before the first is used out, is handman Guy Lombardo. The Canadian-born Lombardo offered services of himself and 16 of his musicians to go out with the sweet stuff before each game in Yankee Stadium. Only gimmick. Louder as Lombarido is concerned, is that he'll have to pay the help out of his own money belt. "I consider it a great honor," says Lombarido, which shows how the hysteria generated by the current series, too, only worsens.

This is umpire John (Heads) Brundage's swan-song (he says). After 24 seasons in the majors and five World Series assignments (including this one), the longtime "sawoff" of the Western Canada league is ready to let it go out of that big chest protector he always has worn and call it a career. Not that he plans to head for an old people's home, either. From now on Brundage will give his business interests in California the full-time treatment.

RAY FREDERICK Flyer Goalie Veteran at 14

By HUGH WATSON
Ray Frederick, the 20-year-old eastern import who is scheduled to kick out pucks for the Flyers this season, was a veteran at the age of 14.

He was offered a professional contract by the now defunct Baltimore Blades, a Buffalo Bisons farm club in 1943.

The above is a brief outline of the young man who already has four years junior and two years senior competition behind him. He started out with Port Arthur Bruins, switched to Hamilton Lloyds and spent the last two years with Brandon West Kings.

"I've had a pretty busy life," he confesses. "My present aim is to make good with Flyers. They're a good team. We should do all right."

MAC COLLIVIE, currently trying out with the Flyers, picked out Frederick's greatest asset when he said the newcomer is quick on his feet.

"That's probably what stops most goalies from hitting the top," said the "Ray doesn't go down too often. But when he does, he's always in position to get back up and fast."

It came as a surprise to find out that negotiations for Frederick started as early as last May. He stayed with Flyers coach Frank Corrie for three weeks, and it was all but settled when he left that he would someday wind up in the neck of the woods.

Frederick is rumored to be the highest paid man on the Flyers. A guest of $1,000 for the season was named by Tim Paul, managing director of the Exhibition Association, but clipp off a few hundred bucks and you'll most likely be close.

"We aren't paying him $1,000," said Paul. "That's all I'm going to get."

HE HAS BRIGHT FUTURE
It's safe to say however, that Frederick has a nice future in store for him. Last night it was announced in Montreal that he is on the registration list of Minneapolis Millers. Following this release, the Millers said Pittsburgh, farm club of Toronto, have permission to open talks for the next campaign.

Now comes a big chance for Frederick. The Allan Cup '48 will be made in?

Eskimos Need 5 More

By DICK BEDDOES
If there is going to be a two-team playoff in the Western Conference, Edmonton Eskimos have to win five of their remaining seven games.

And they've got to win these games on the following basis:
Two each from Winnipeg and Regina, and one from Calgary.

And to assist the Eskimos cause, the front-running Stampede must knock off the second-place Roughriders in their two remaining games.

By winning five of their remaining seven contests Eskimos would finish the season with seven wins and seven losses, for 14 points, if all the wins are worth two points.

Following the above routine, Regina, currently holding a five-and-three win-loss record with six games to play would wind up with seven and seven, too.

But one of Regina's remaining two games with Winnipeg is a one-point effort, as are two of Edmonton's remaining three matches with Calgary.

Therefore all five of Edmonton's wins must be of the two-point variety.

Confusing and not very enthusiastic, read reader?

You're right.
But the whole thing might be worth the effort. A doctor in the scene called his condition "critical."

Dr. Louis Hertz of Buffalo emergency hospital said the former resident of Italy suffered a cerebral concussion and probably a cerebral hemorrhage. Bertula was removed in an ambulance.

HEAVE TOMORROW
Coach Anshu Stukus and his gang leave Edmonton tomorrow night on their last swing through Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

YANKS OR DODGERS? Potato Prober Picks Winner

By JOHN 'SWAMI' McLEAN
Ah, my friends. So you want to know who's going to win the World Series.

Come in, come in, my dear friends. Watch you don't trip over the cats. I keep dozens of them. Help me look into the future, you know.

That's right. Don't sit on the sofa. Over there you'll be comfortable.

Now, let's see. Shall we brew a pot of tea and gaze into the tea leaves, or would you prefer me to read the bumps on your head?

Personally, I like to gaze into this old point. It's amazing what I can see in this potato.

What's that? You say you don't care what I gaze into. Now, my friends, don't be impatient.

A World Series isn't won or prognosticated in a day. Babo, oh Babo, bring me my old potato, will you. There's a good idea. Thank you. He handling the pros.

Now, let's turn down the lights. Soft music, Babo, if you please. Soft but weird.

File. Let us begin. Oh, grandson of a mashed potato. Look ye down on New York City. Never mind that hot tomato.

Leafs, according to coach Bert Gibb, are in top condition and with additional help should give the EAC team, should make a good showing when they clash with Calgary in the provincial junior final Oct. 10-16.

Promising Leaf half-back, Rich Moore, who sprained his ankle in the action, will be back on the grid for the final.

Grid Coach Does It Hard Way

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—It was in a recent football game between two Ohio high schools, Beasley and Greenfield, . . . somewhere out there happened again. . . . Then a third time. . . . After mix-up No. 3, a fan shouted from the stands: "Hey, coach, it's one for each finger then one more."

PERCIE ROSS was listed by the Yankees as the only coach who was the American League pennant. . . . "I've been in the World Series three times—and each time I've been in the Yankees' pennant."

One railroad man estimates it cost his line $80,000 when it became a subway system instead of a Beasley-Die. Little sleeper jump.

Rob Murnan was listed by the No. 1 freshman quarterback at Southern California State fall. . . . But the kid just up and left, explaining that he will enter Northwestern next fall.

USC coaches didn't mind too much because they have so many good quarterbacks, but what really burned them up was the reason he gave for his departure. "I don't like the weather here. It's too hot."

Wage Plan Conclave Tomorrow

Painters' Union And Employers Get Together

Meeting of Edmonton and district painters was addressed by Harry Collett of Toronto, general organizer for Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America.

A 20-year-old Edmonton boy was found guilty in Supreme Court here yesterday of raping a 32-year-old woman. The boy, James D. Newman of 11341 94 street, is expected to be sentenced today.

Charged in connection with the case was Newman's friend, Graham Dale Coggan, 17, of 11329-50 street, whose trial opened today.

The pair were arrested by city police on the night of May 28 when two prowler car officers were attracted by a woman's screams on the Cline stadium road.

The woman, a mother of a six-year-old boy, testified she had been waiting for a streetcar on the corner of 50 street and 111 avenue when the boys drove up and offered her a ride home.

Tempting Cranberries For Holiday Desserts

By Bea Thrifty

Good news today about red, ripe, luscious cranberries arriving in Edmonton stores this week, just in time for Thanksgiving!

Thanks to the lifting of the embargo on U.S. fruit and vegetable imports, the winter delicacy will be only one of many goodies shortly to make a welcome appearance.

Remember last Christmas when cranberries were worth their weight in uranium? It's a different story now.

Price will be about 35 to 40 cents a pound, well below last year's level.

Not just doing to try out a new recipe for ginger cranberries, as soon as the berries appear in my favorite food market.

I'll need two cups of cranberries, 1/2 cup of golden raisins, 1/2 cup of honey, five tablespoons sugar, and 1/2 teaspoon powdered ginger.

Chop the cranberries and raisins in a wooden bowl; dice the orange very fine. I may put all the food through the food chopper, using the coarse blade.

Next, I'll mix in the honey and ginger and stir the whole mixture overnight in the refrigerator. The recipe makes two cups, I've told.

Frostbitten fingers won't be my lot when the time comes to 'cause I found out warm aprons and mittens today.

Every color in the rainbow is there for the asking. Contrasting hand-embroidered leaves, berries, flowers or geometric designs make these Cranberry products.

tions a veritable gem for only $2.95.

Have some answers today for the people who keep asking what to give when a shower honors indicates that the gift is to be a personal one.

First answer can be found on any holiday counter. In the form of a plastic hanger bag. You'll probably see these flat, quilted envelopes with the half-drawn compartments inside. Tuck a shiny pair of nylon in, and what bride could ask for a nicer present!

The envelope by the way, is in white, blue, pink, or green.

'Not her nice gift, though a bit more expensive, is a small paper bottle, in pastel-colored glass.

Complete with stoneware, this gift is a perfect one.

If you wanted to go all out for this particular bride-to-be, you could have the bottle filled with her favorite scents.

Supper to start, remember her holiday wishes is another pretty gift.

'Quebec's Cream' is the name of a fresh pudding mix, this brings to mind a delicious cream.

These flower-like seeds, in $2.75.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Cleanliness Essential In Formula Preparation

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The best food you can buy for the baby can be ruined if the bottle in which it is served, or the utensils in which it is prepared, has not been properly cleaned.

Since making the baby bottles is a day's economy for a mother, the first job of every mother should be to clean the bottles and nipples.

An electric sterilizer is a handy aid and having these sterilized preserving bottles large enough to accommodate all the bottles and nipples at one time.

Empty each bottle as soon as the baby has eaten and leave it with cold water. Put these glass bottles in the electric sterilizer. In the top of the sterilizer, you may place a small amount of water to keep the bottles from cracking.

Turn the water on and let it boil for ten minutes. After ten minutes, turn the water off and let the bottles stand in the water for ten minutes more.

WHY GROW OLD

For Healthy Teeth Brush Twice Daily

By Josephine Lowman

Beautiful teeth are strong healthy teeth. Toothpaste and movie stars have made us very conscious of the lift lovely sparkling teeth give our appearance!

We cannot all have such gorgeous molars and bluish-pinks, but we can take care of what we have!

Cleanliness is one of the first tenets of attractiveness and beauty. While, clean teeth are never repulsive even though they may not be regular or beautiful in shape.

The condition of the teeth also has a tremendous impact on our health. The poison which gets into the system because of diseased teeth can cause a variety of serious troubles. It can damage every organ we have, and build up our joints and rheumatism and skin rashes.

I recently asked a distinguished dentist for a few simple rules concerning tooth care. Here they are:

1. Keep the teeth clean. Brush them carefully at least twice a day—before eating at night and the first thing in the morning.

2. Use dental floss once daily.

3. Go to your dentist for a periodic examination twice a year.

4. Have your teeth X-rayed once a year. Many discrepancies show up on the X-ray which the human eye cannot see.

5. It is common sense to eat a well-balanced diet with an optimum content of vital foods.

Most persons give their teeth a very unsatisfactory brushing. Remember that you should brush your teeth up and down rather than sideways.

6. Use your tongue to clean the roof of your mouth and the sides of your tongue. Brushing is hard on the enamel. Most brushes think you should brush down on the upper teeth and up on the lower teeth. After that, cleanse the chewing surface. The gums profit by gentle massage. You can accomplish this by placing the brush close to the gum and massaging gently, or you can use your finger for gum stimulation. Be careful not to scratch the gums.

Toothpastes and powders are pleasant to use and will help you keep your teeth clean. Be sure that you use one which is not at all gritty. Soda and table salt can be used instead of paste and powder. Salt is inferior to some gums. If this is true in your case, do not use it!

Have a fairly stiff bristled brush. It is better to have two brushes. Keep them clean and dry.

Bad breath, or halitosis, is a great handicap. This is often due to decayed or incorrectly cleaned teeth. Decaying food particles can cause this, although there are other causes. Indigestion or sinus trouble or diseased tonsils can do it.

Tempting Cranberries For Holiday Des

By Bea Thrifty

Good news today about red, ripe, luscious arriving in Edmonton stores this week. Thanksgiving!

Thanks to the lifting of the vegetable imports, the many goodies shortly to Remember last Christmas their weight in us. Price will be about last year's level.

I'm just dying to try out a recipe for glaze cranberries soon as the berries appear in favorite food market.

I'll need two cups of cranberries, five cups of golden raisins, a large unpeeled orange, six cups of honey, five tablespoons sugar and ten teaspoons powdered ginger.

Chop the cranberries and raisins in a wooden bowl. DASH! CRASH! all the food through the food processor, using the coarse blade, chopping, using the coarse blade.

Next, I'll mix in the hot sugar and ginger and whole works in a covered glass or enamel container overnight the refrigerator. The recipe makes two cups, I'm told.

Frostbitten fingers won't my lot when the first snow 'cause I found soft, warm gloves and mittens today. Every color in the rainbow there for the asking. Colorful hand-embroidered towels, flowers or geometrics make these Grandmas.

Empty each bottle and baby has eaten and with cold water. To be washed all at once. In the day or evening, wash all utensils with a bottle brush, then into all clean glass bottles.

Oil

Gulf to Test Michel Area

By Don Flach
Another test of the area northwest of Edmonton is to be made, Canadian Gulf Oil Co. will make the test, drilling on the 11,000-acre Michel Indian reserve 15 miles from the city.

First well, Gulf Michel No. 4, will be drilled on land 425-54-CWV. Gulf has been considerable seismic work in the area to which it obtained rights at a cost of $35,000 more than two years ago.

BRUDERHEIM WILDCAT
Another U.S. oil company, Placid Oil Company of Shreveport, Louisiana, has started operations with a wildcat on a five and one-half section farm about five miles east of Bruderheim and about seven miles from Imperial Simons, which reported good showings last week.

Located on land 154-56-19W4, the well is presently drilling, with the well is planned to test down to 4,100 feet.

It is also supplying the land and seismic information, with Placid drilling the first well. If production results indicate in the well and land and cost of follow-up development will be split 50-50, says Tex-Drilling Co. are contractors.

BIG WELL FOR BA
British American No. 45 in the Michel area has been completed, with production with one of the larger pre-drilled wells recorded in the area.

It is being moved to the drill on a 5-5 acre presently being subdivided, No. 6 yet to be drilled. The well is presently being drilled and preparing to run it.

Leidre BA, is drilling about at 3,004 feet and at St. Paul the widest of BA-H.B.O.G.-Union

July Copper Output Higher

Industrial Index Hits Year's High

Noranda Climbs To 63; Western Oils Are Steady

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Spurred by higher production in July, output of new copper in Canada reached 30,138 tons for the first time in 1948, compared with 24,438 tons in the same period last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

However, nickel production fell July dropped to a new low after August, 1948, when the cumulative total to 78,023 tons, compared with 76,029 tons last year. July's output of copper amounted to 21,438 tons, compared with 20,209 tons in June and 21,712 tons in July's output of nickel totaled 9,887 tons, compared with 10,380 in June and 10,450 in July last year.

Livestock
EDMONTON, Oct. 5.—Total receipts, cattle 458, calves 152, hogs 756, sheep 133.

There was fair action on Western feed cattle, with a good demand. Today's run consisted of 21,438 tons, compared with 20,209 tons in June and 21,712 tons in July's output of nickel totaled 9,887 tons, compared with 10,380 in June and 10,450 in July last year.

Small Changes At New York
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The stock market developed a wobbly start, opening an opening burst of strength today.

The early rise carried the general price level to a new peak for the year. The market, on average, remained higher but individual advances were checked down by a handful of stocks backed up to a level.

Changes either way were limited mostly to less than a point. Heavy trading during the first hour, when buying was most active, helped to swell the day's business to the largest volume in around three weeks. Sales were at the rate of around 1,500,000 shares for the full session.

Higher most of the day were U.S. Steel, Republic Steel, the steel industry, International Paper, Westinghouse, American Telephone and Telegraph, Alcoa, Aluminum, and others.

Alberta Oils
Calgary and Edmonton, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Oil prices were steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil. The price of oil was steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil.

Western Oils Edge Ahead
CALGARY, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Oil prices were steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil. The price of oil was steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil.

Average Car Prices Show Upward Trend
OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—The average price of a new car shot up $188 to $1,965 in 1948, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

This upward trend—evident in both passenger and commercial vehicle prices—caused a slight contraction in sales, but increased total retail value.

The price increase appeared to have other effects:

1. Operations of Canadian companies expanded.

2. It reduced the number of cars that could be sold.

Rate Increase Failed To Boost Railways Net

Both Oats and Barley Move Ahead Slightly

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Despite the 21-per-cent freight-rate increase granted Canadian railways last year, the carriers showed smaller net revenues in 1948 than those earned in 1947, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

Net revenues totaled $67,760,538, compared with $64,534,873 in 1947. The freight-rate increase, granted March 30, 1948, did help in one respect, it shot gross operating revenues to a peak of $815,320,200, an increase of $60,627,070 over 1947.

This was an increase of $12,136,000 over the previous high recorded in 1944.

However, expenses, spurred by increases in materials and the 17-per-cent wage increase to rail-employees, jumped from $180,000,000 in 1947 to a record of $208,145,450 in 1948—a boost of 15 per cent.

The increase in expenses in 1948 over 1947 exceeded the increase in revenues by $20,515,000.

Butter Stocks Still Growing
OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—With seven of nine Canadian cities reporting increased holdings of butter, total stocks climbed to 1,000,000 on Oct. 5, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

On Sept. 1 and 31, 1948, Oct. 1, 1948, stocks were in Quebec 1,000,000; Superior 30, 30, 30; Toronto, Windsor, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver.

Chicago Grain Weak at Close
CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Grains weakened late in the session on reports of a heavy rain in the Midwest. In most instances losses were not large, although they ran to more than a cent in soybeans.

The July wheat contract dropped 1/4 cent, but the market was steady. This represents 1948's highest and its price trend was greatly influenced by the weather.

Western Oils Edge Ahead
CALGARY, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Oil prices were steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil. The price of oil was steady, with a slight advance in the price of oil.

Average Car Prices Show Upward Trend
OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—(CP)—The average price of a new car shot up $188 to $1,965 in 1948, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

Wheat Board Sept. Quotes

WINNIPEG, Oct. 5.—(CP)—Oats and barley moved narrowly in trading today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, and both developed firmer trends than yesterday. Trading was moderately active.

A better class of buying came in for oats, and while heading sales were slow, they were well absorbed. Barley trade was light under a few shipping demands.

There were no wheat allocations reported during today's trading. Prices of class two wheat, for export to countries other than the United Kingdom, were unchanged.
